Case No.: GIC37-2008-00079135-CU-WT-CTL

COMPLAINT
DISABILITY DISCRIMINATION [Cal. Gov.
Code §12940(a), et. seq.]; DISABILITY
DISCRIMINATION [Cal. Gov. Code
§12940(n)]; PREGNANCY/SEX
DISCRIMINATION; VIOLATION OF
CALIFORNIA FAMILY RIGHTS ACT; RETALIATION; TORTIOUS DISCHARGE IN VIOLATION OF PUBLIC POLICY; INTENTIONAL INFLICTION OF
EMOTIONAL DISTRESS; NEGLIGENT
INFLICTION OF EMOTIONAL DISTRESS.

COMES NOW Plaintiff, LEJONETTE MOORE and complains and alleges as follows:

FACTS COMMON TO ALL CAUSES OF ACTION

- 1) Defendant, LABORATORY CORPORATION OF AMERICA, INC., (hereinafter
"LABCORP"), is, and at all times herein mentioned was, a corporation duly organized and existing under the laws of the State of Delaware and doing business in San Diego, California.
- 2) The true names and capacities of Defendants named herein as DOES 1 through 50, inclusive, whether individual, corporate, associate, or otherwise, are unknown to Plaintiff, and thus sued by such fictitious names pursuant to Cal. Code Civ. Proc. § 474. Plaintiff is informed and believes

1 that DOE Defendants are California residents. Plaintiff will amend this Complaint to show true
2 names in these capacities when they have been determined.

3 3) Plaintiff is informed and believes that at all times herein the individual actors were agents,
4 servants, and employees of named Defendants, and were acting within the course and scope of 5 their authority as agents, servants, and employees with the permission and consent of 6 Defendants.

7 4) Plaintiff is, and at all relevant times was, an adult residing in San Diego County, California.

8 5) At all relevant times herein, Plaintiff was an employee of Defendant LABCORP.

9 6) At all relevant times herein, Plaintiff was a permanent employee of Defendant LABCORP,
10 employed as a customer service support representative.

11 7) In 2005, Plaintiff informed her employer that she was pregnant. LABCORP representatives 12 informed her that she could never call in sick due to her pregnancy. They stated: "That was 13 unacceptable." This was true even though Plaintiff had been informed during her training that the 14 Paid Leave Bank ("POB") could be used for anything, giving examples such as getting ones nails
15 done. Plaintiff's pregnancy did not go to term.

16 8) In December 2005, while at work, Plaintiff was clearly ill and in the process of a miscarriage.
17 While crying, Plaintiff informed her supervisor that she was hemorrhaging. Her supervisor stated
18 that maybe she needed to put her feet up and told her to watch a training video and see how she 19 feels. Plaintiff's friend became upset and encouraged Plaintiff to inform her superiors that she 20 needed to leave. Plaintiff feared reprisal from her supervisor so first she contacted her
21 physician's office. The nurse informed Plaintiff that she needed to go home and that the nurse
22 would fax a note to Plaintiff's superior. Plaintiff's superior told Plaintiff she could go home, but 23 she must return the next day. A second supervisor stated that Plaintiff should have gotten the day

1 off, but her superior who told her to be back at work merely retorted that "Plaintiff did not ask
2 for it."

3 9) In contrast to Defendant LABCORP representatives' treatment of Plaintiff, another woman at 4 the facility became pregnant and suffered a miscarriage. This individual was allowed to leave
5 work when hemorrhaging. In addition, the supervisors allowed that worker to remain off work
6 after the miscarriage for approximately three weeks.

7 10) During a second pregnancy, in approximately August 2006, LABCORP representatives told
8 Plaintiff they would accommodate whatever time off she needed for her pregnancy. One
9 representative stated "even if your time runs out, just call us, we will accommodate you. Six 10 months may not be enough time, we will accommodate more than that if necessary."

11 11) On or about September 8, 2006, Plaintiff suffered from pregnancy related Bells Palsey in the 12 seventh month of her pregnancy. Her doctor removed her from work. Bells Palsy caused 13 Plaintiff's entire left side to feel paralyzed.

14 12) Prior to the doctor removing her from work, Plaintiff had arranged with LABCORP to be off
15 work on maternity leave in early October 2006. LABCORP was leaving it up to Plaintiff what 16 exact date she desired to go on maternity leave.

17 13) Despite LABCORP representatives' previous assertions regarding accommodating her 18 pregnancy leave, as early as November 2006, Plaintiff was contacted by her supervisor at 19 LABCORP and erroneously informed that she had not been an employee for one year and as 20 such she was not eligible for the Family Medical Leave Act ("FMLA") benefits. As such, she 21 was informed that she needed to return to work immediately.

22 14) Plaintiff felt extreme pressure to return to work despite that she had in fact worked for 23 LABCORP over one year and was entitled to FMLA. Plaintiff contacted the LABCORP Human

1 Resources Department ("HR") to confirm that she had been employed for over one year.

2 LABCORP reluctantly confirmed that she in fact was entitled to FMLA and approved twelve
3 weeks leave.

4 15) Subsequent to Defendant's representatives unsuccessful efforts to force Plaintiff's return to 5 work, Defendant's representatives informed Plaintiff while she was still on maternity leave that 6 she needed to return to her workplace to pack up all her items because someone else needed to sit 7 at her desk.

8 16) Plaintiff returned to work on February 22, 2007.

9 17) Immediately upon her return, Plaintiff was treated differently than prior to her medical leave.
10 Before her leave, Plaintiff often worked many overtime hours at her employer's request.
11 However, after her return, she was offered overtime only once.

12 18) While on maternity leave, Plaintiff's desk had been moved to the back corner in a location
13 where her back now faced everyone else in the room.

14 19) On February 28, 2007, Plaintiff's small baby was sick and needed to see the doctor. Plaintiff
15 had five hours of leave time attributable to her. Despite that she had sufficient time on the books,
16 when she contacted her supervisor, Plaintiff was informed that she did not have the time to take 17 off. LABCORP representatives stated "can't your Mom take your kids? You need to make 18 arrangements, you do not have time on the books. You are either coming to work or you are 19 quitting." Plaintiff was extremely distressed.

20 20) Plaintiff contacted HR who confirmed not only that Plaintiff had five hours on the books, but
21 also that Plaintiff's supervisors were aware prior to their conversation with Plaintiff that Plaintiff
22 had five hours available. However, despite that the supervisors knew Plaintiff had five hours
23 available, they lied to Plaintiff telling her she only had 2.77 hours which in their opinion was not

1 sufficient time for her to take her baby to the doctor. Plaintiff felt pressured by her supervisor
2 which resulted in Plaintiff working that day.

3 21) Plaintiff worked without incident until early March when she began to suffer from post-
4 partum depression.

5 22) On March 5, 2007, Plaintiff's doctor treated her for depression and removed her from work
6 for a mere two weeks.

7 23) Plaintiff contacted LABCORP and left her supervisor a message regarding her doctor's
8 removing her from work. Later that day, a LABCORP Manager contacted Plaintiff to inform her 9 that LABCORP "could not accommodate her requested personal time off. Whenever you are 10 better, you can reapply for your position." They informed Plaintiff that she was not fired,
11 however they were "terminating her employment."

12 24) The next day, on March 6, 2007, Plaintiff faxed her doctor's note requiring that Plaintiff be 13 off work for two weeks to her supervisor at LABCORP. She contacted HR to determine whether 14 they would appropriately honor her medical restriction for the requested two weeks. The HR
15 Manager informed Plaintiff "I am sorry, I hope you are getting better." The Manager informed 16 Plaintiff she would look into the situation and call her back.

17 25) Plaintiff did not hear back from the HR Manager until Friday of that week. On that day,
18 LABCORP representatives informed Plaintiff that they must terminate her because they could 19 not accommodate the "personal time she was requesting." Despite that LABCORP had already 20 packed up Plaintiff's items and sent them to Plaintiff's house via DHL, Plaintiff was not
21 informed of this. When Plaintiff returned to her home, she found all her things from LABCORP
22 dumped in front of her house unattended in an old taped up box. Numerous items were broken 23 and destroyed.

26) Subsequently, Plaintiff received a letter from LABCORP dated March 8, 2007, which stated that i) Ms. Moore was ineligible for FMLA, and ii) due to a "serious health condition that makes [her] unable to perform the essential functions of [her] job," and that she was therefore terminated.

27) On July 23, 2007, Plaintiff requested that LABCORP engage in an informal interactive process to discuss whether Plaintiff could perform the essential functions of her position. LABCORP never responded.

28) On August, 23, 2007, Plaintiff again contacted LABCORP following up on her request to engage in an interactive process. LABCORP again failed to respond.

29) On Nov. 27, 2007, Plaintiff contacted LABCORP for the third time requesting a response to her requests for engaging in an interactive process. LABCORP ignored this request as well.

30) On August 31, 2007, and on _____, Plaintiff timely filed complaints with the Department of Fair Employment and Housing ("DFEH") complaining of the wrongful conduct described herein.

31) The DFEH mailed Right to Sue Notices to Plaintiff, less than one year from the filing of this Complaint.

32) The allegations set forth in the above and below paragraphs are re-alleged and incorporated herein by reference.

33) At all times herein mentioned, Government Code § 12900, et seq., were in full force and effect and were binding upon Defendant. This section requires Defendant to engage in a timely,

1 good faith, interactive process with the employee or applicant to determine effective reasonable
2 accommodations, if any, in response to a request for reasonable accommodation by an employee or 3 applicant with a known physical or mental disability or known medical condition.

4 34) Plaintiff requested that Defendant engage in a timely, good faith, interactive process to explore
5 Plaintiff's capacities to return to work with Defendant, essential work functions, and reasonable
6 accommodations or lack thereof.

7 35) Within the time provided by law, Plaintiff filed complaints with the California Department of 8 Fair Employment and Housing and received Right to Sue letters.

9 36) Plaintiff requested such accommodation and exploration, but Defendant refused to do so in good
10 faith. Plaintiff maintains that Defendant had already decided that Plaintiff would not be allowed to 11 return to work as a customer service support representative; and that Defendant refused to consider 12 or even respond to Plaintiff's multiple requests to engage in an interactive process.

13 37) As a proximate result of Defendant's willful, knowing, and intentional discrimination
14 against Plaintiff, she continues to sustain substantial losses in earnings and other employment

16 38) As a proximate result of Defendant's willful, knowing, and intentional discrimination
17 against Plaintiff, she has suffered and continues to suffer humiliation, emotional distress, and
18 mental and physical pain and anguish, all to her damage in a sum accruing to proof.

19 39) Plaintiff has incurred and continues to incur legal expense and attorneys' fees. The total
20 amount of those attorneys' fees and expenses are currently unknown, and Plaintiff prays leave of

41) The allegations set forth in the above and below paragraphs are re-alleged and incorporated herein by reference.

42) At all times herein mentioned, Government Code §12940 was in full force and effect and was binding upon Defendant. This section requires Defendants to refrain from discrimination against any employee on the basis of an actual or perceived disability.

43) Within the time provided by law, Plaintiff filed complaints with the California Department of Fair Employment and Housing and received Right to Sue letters.

44) Defendant has, on an ongoing and continuing basis, harassed and discriminated against Plaintiff due to Plaintiff's actual and/or perceived disability, including but not limited to: informing Plaintiff that she could not take any pregnancy related time off for her first pregnancy; informing Plaintiff that they would accommodate any time off she wanted for her second pregnancy and then after having her twins demanded that Plaintiff immediately return to work because she was allegedly not eligible for CFRA Leave when she was; pressuring Plaintiff from taking her baby to the doctor by falsely informing Plaintiff that she only had 2.77 hours on the books rather than the true 5; threatening her that they would consider Plaintiff to have quit her job if she took her baby to the doctor even though she had sufficient leave time to allow for it; stating that Plaintiff's mother or some other arrangement needed to be made to get her baby to the doctor even though Plaintiff had sufficient leave time to allow for it; terminating Plaintiff for "requesting personal leave time," when in fact Plaintiff expressly informed them her doctor had removed her from work for two weeks due to post-partum depression; terminating Plaintiff's employment, packing her office, and without informing Plaintiff, then dumping those contents unsupervised in front of her house, yet concurrently informing Plaintiff on the same day her belongings were dumped in front of her home, that they could not accommodate her request for

1 personal time off, even though Plaintiff had provided a doctor's prescription clearly indicating
 2 that Plaintiff had been removed from work for two weeks for a medical condition; subsequently
 3 informing Plaintiff a different reason for her termination, that she was ineligible for FMLA, and
 4 due to a serious health condition she was unable to perform her job; and refusing to engage in or
 5 even reply to Plaintiff's multiple requests for a good faith interactive process regarding 6 Plaintiff's return to work all due to Plaintiff's actual or perceived disability.

7 45) As a proximate result of Defendant's willful, knowing, and intentional discrimination
 8 against Plaintiff, she continues to sustain substantial losses in earnings and other employment
 9 benefits.

10 46) As a proximate result of Defendant's willful, knowing, and intentional discrimination
 11 against Plaintiff, she has suffered and continues to suffer humiliation, emotional distress, and
 12 mental and physical pain and anguish, all to her damage in a sum accruing to proof.

13 47) Plaintiff has incurred and continues to incur legal expense and attorneys' fees. The total
 14 amount of those attorneys' fees and expenses are currently unknown, and Plaintiff prays leave of 15 court to amend this Complaint when said amounts are fully known.

16 48) WHEREFORE, Plaintiff requests relief as hereinafter provided.

14 she only had 2.77 hours on the books rather than the true 5 hours she had on the books;

16 doctor even though she had sufficient leave time to allow for it; stating that Plaintiff's mother or
17 some other arrangement needed to be made to get her baby to the doctor even though Plaintiff

22 removed her from work for two weeks due to post-partum depression; terminating Plaintiff's
23 employment, packing her office, and without informing Plaintiff, then dumping those contents
24 unsupervised in front of her house, yet concurrently informing Plaintiff on the same day her 25 belongings were dumped in front of her home, that they could not accommodate her request for personal time off, even though Plaintiff had provided a doctor's prescription clearly indicating that Plaintiff had been removed from work for two weeks for a medical condition; subsequently

2 due to a serious health condition she was unable to perform her job; and refusing to engage in or
3 even reply to Plaintiff's request for a good faith interactive process regarding Plaintiff's return to 4 work all due to Plaintiff's actual or perceived disability.

5 61) As a proximate result of Defendant's willful, knowing, and intentional discrimination
6 against Plaintiff, she continues to sustain substantial losses in earnings and other employment

INSTRUCTIONS FOR ATTORNEYS COMPLETING CIVIL COVER SHEET FORM JS 44*Authority For Civil Cover Sheet

The JS 44 civil cover sheet and the information contained herein neither replaces nor supplements the filings and service of pleading or other papers as required by law, except as provided by local rules of court. This form, approved by the Judicial Conference of the United States in September 1974, is required for the use of the Clerk of Court for the purpose of initiating the civil docket sheet. Consequently, a civil cover sheet is submitted to the Clerk of Court for each civil complaint filed. The attorney filing a case should complete the form as follows:

I. (a) Plaintiffs-Defendants. Enter names (last, first, middle initial) of plaintiff and defendant. If the plaintiff or defendant is a government agency, use only the full name or standard abbreviations. If the plaintiff or defendant is an official within a government agency, identify first the agency and then the official, giving both name and title.

(b) County of Residence. For each civil case filed, except U.S. plaintiff cases, enter the name of the county where the first listed plaintiff resides at the time of filing. In U.S. plaintiff cases, enter the name of the county in which the first listed defendant resides at the time of filing. (NOTE: In land condemnation cases, the county of residence of the "defendant" is the location of the tract of land involved.)

(c) Attorneys. Enter the firm name, address, telephone number, and attorney of record. If there are several attorneys, list them on an attachment, noting in this section "(see attachment)".

II. Jurisdiction. The basis of jurisdiction is set forth under Rule 8(a), F.R.C.P., which requires that jurisdictions be shown in pleadings. Place an "X" in one of the boxes. If there is more than one basis of jurisdiction, precedence is given in the order shown below.

United States plaintiff. (1) Jurisdiction based on 28 U.S.C. 1345 and 1348. Suits by agencies and officers of the United States are included here.

United States defendant. (2) When the plaintiff is suing the United States, its officers or agencies, place an "X" in this box.

Federal question. (3) This refers to suits under 28 U.S.C. 1331, where jurisdiction arises under the Constitution of the United States, an amendment to the Constitution, an act of Congress or a treaty of the United States. In cases where the U.S. is a party, the U.S. plaintiff or defendant code takes precedence, and box 1 or 2 should be marked.

Diversity of citizenship. (4) This refers to suits under 28 U.S.C. 1332, where parties are citizens of different states. When Box 4 is checked, the citizenship of the different parties must be checked. (See Section III below; federal question actions take precedence over diversity cases.)

III. Residence (citizenship) of Principal Parties. This section of the JS 44 is to be completed if diversity of citizenship was indicated above. Mark this section for each principal party.

IV. Nature of Suit. Place an "X" in the appropriate box. If the nature of suit cannot be determined, be sure the cause of action, in Section VI below, is sufficient to enable the deputy clerk or the statistical clerks in the Administrative Office to determine the nature of suit. If the cause fits more than one nature of suit, select the most definitive.

V. Origin. Place an "X" in one of the seven boxes.

Original Proceedings. (1) Cases which originate in the United States district courts.

Removed from State Court. (2) Proceedings initiated in state courts may be removed to the district courts under Title 28 U.S.C., Section 1441. When the petition for removal is granted, check this box.

Remanded from Appellate Court. (3) Check this box for cases remanded to the district court for further action. Use the date of remand as the filing date.

Reinstated or Reopened. (4) Check this box for cases reinstated or reopened in the district court. Use the reopening date as the filing date.

Transferred from Another District. (5) For cases transferred under Title 28 U.S.C. Section 1404(a). Do not use this for within district transfers or multidistrict litigation transfers.

Multidistrict Litigation. (6) Check this box when a multidistrict case is transferred into the district under authority of Title 28 U.S.C. Section 1407. When this box is checked, do not check (5) above.

Appeal to District Judge from Magistrate Judgment. (7) Check this box for an appeal from a magistrate judge's decision.

VI. Cause of Action. Report the civil statute directly related to the cause of action and give a brief description of the cause. Do not cite jurisdictional statutes unless diversity. Example: U.S. Civil Statute: 47 USC 553

Brief Description: Unauthorized reception of cable service

VII. Requested in Complaint. Class Action. Place an "X" in this box if you are filing a class action under Rule 23, F.R.Cv.P.

Demand. In this space enter the dollar amount (in thousands of dollars) being demanded or indicate other demand such as a preliminary injunction.

Jury Demand. Check the appropriate box to indicate whether or not a jury is being demanded.

VIII. Related Cases. This section of the JS 44 is used to reference related pending cases if any. If there are related pending cases, insert the docket numbers and the corresponding judge names for such cases.

Date and Attorney Signature. Date and sign the civil cover sheet.
